RENOVATION OF STATE FOREST COMPANIES

REDD+ could offer financial incentives for some State Forest Companies (SFCs) to improve their operations to access possible carbon financing mechanisms. The FCPF-2 project will collaborate with provinces to evaluate some of the forest companies to identify their needs and support plans for the development of sustainable forest management, forest certification and equitization.